I am grateful to Gateway Travel and Tours, where I booked our family's trip to Georgia. This is our first Christmas spent abroad, and we truly enjoyed it. We visited many places, all of which were truly awe-inspiring.

I also want to thank our tour guide, who was very kind and attentive to us. He never left us unattended during all our tours and was such a joy to be with. He ensured that no one got lost or was left behind by the bus.

All I can say is that our tour was perfect, and we were very happy with the experience, even though it was tiring.

A big thank you to Anshah, who organized our group and provided us with a great plane and a wonderful hotel for our stay.

From the moment we arrived, Georgia captured our hearts. Every detail, from the breathtaking landscapes to the warm hospitality, contributed to an experience beyond our expectations. Each day was an adventure. We hiked in Gudauri where the views were awe-inspiring. The culinary experience was outstanding. Local specialties were a treat, and we were impressed by the variety of options available, from cozy street-side cafés to fine dining restaurants. The locals were incredibly kind and welcoming, eager to share their culture and stories. It made the experience feel genuine and immersive. This trip was a perfect blend of relaxation, adventure, and discovery. It left us with unforgettable memories and a longing to return. I highly recommend Gateway Travels to anyone seeking an extraordinary getaway! Our tour guide Toka was the best! We were incredibly fortunate to have Toka as our guide during our trip.
